

NATIONAL PROGRESSIVE SCHOOLS' CONFERENCE

New Era Public School Mayapuri hosted the National Progressive Schools' Conference (NPSC) 2017 on April 26, 2017. The NPSC is a forty four year old association of senior secondary schools across the country and has 160 private schools as its members. It was started in 1973. The Principals of many reputed schools all over Delhi registered their presence and participated in the conference on April 26. The school made elaborate arrangements for the guest Principals and other office bearers. It started with the meeting of the Executive members of the association, followed by the General Body Meeting. The school choir and band presented a Sufi rendition "Mitti da Pahalwan" which made a tranquil atmosphere in the auditorium. The Principals applauded the hospitality extended by the host school. The conference went on smoothly and was another successful endeavour of the school. The school takes pride in hosting such events which aim at the evolution of the education system and facilitate the initiatives of the stakeholders.
