Dear Parents,

Hope you all are safe and healthy. As you are aware, the Directorate of Education, Govt. of NCT of Delhi has given permission to call the students to school. We, as an institution would like to begin the process of having regular, offline classes for the students. This is important for their overall development as well as academic growth. Hence, all students of class V are required to report to school on Monday, 29th November, 2021. Parents are requested to drop their ward at 8:40 a.m. and pick them up at 1:30 p.m. Entry and exit of students will be from Gate 3. Teachers on duty will ensure the smooth movement of students.

Please note:

- Social distancing norms will be maintained in the school premises at all times.
- A maximum of 20 students will be seated in each classroom.
- Students should bring their notebooks and workbooks according to the regular Monday time table being followed.
- All students must wear a mask, be in school uniform/ white shirt and blue jeans, carry their water bottle, tiffin and a sanitizer.
- Transport facility will not be provided.
- The format for the consent letter is attached herewith. All parents are requested to mail the consent letter on the class email id / hand over the consent letter to the teacher at the gate when they drop their child to school on 29th November, 2021.

We urge all parents to send their ward to school. Your cooperation in this regard will be highly appreciated.

Regards

Vandana Chawla
